++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mostly dry with widespread showers early Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
The last of the day's showers should clear early evening, leaving clear spells with the odd blustery shower through the evening and early night. Showers becoming more organised and frequent through the night, especially in the south. Winds remaining strong. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Friday:
A wet and windy start, with widespread showers around dawn, clearing to give a mostly dry afternoon. Widespread, organised heavy showers, possibly thunderous, arriving in the late afternoon. Remaining windy. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Blustery showers and sunny spells on the weekend, with risk of hail. Winds remain strong, with gales and severe gales along coasts Saturday, easing Sunday. Cloudy with rain on Monday.
